Sublime

L'acqua si schiude

Come una porta

A facilitare il passaggio

Mi accoglie

Mi inghiotte

Mi trattiene

Nel liquido avvolgimento

La forza rigenerante

Che ridesta la memoria antica

Del già vissuto.

Impermanente divenire
